Matt started his insurance career and joined Rothbury in 2026. Working with Domestic insurance clients, he is passionate about going above and beyond for his clients, building strong relationships, and working efficiently to achieve the best possible results. Matt brings a strong work ethic, discipline, and an eagerness to learn and grow within the insurance industry. He is looking forward to helping clients achieve good outcomes, developing his industry knowledge and skills, and growing within a team environment. Matt is currently working towards his New Zealand Certificate in Financial Services (Level 5) in General Insurance.

Outside of work, Matt enjoys calisthenics, watching sport, gaming, travelling, writing music, and spending time with friends and family. He also enjoys building healthy habits and making the most of Wellington's laid-back culture, friendly people, and beaches on a nice day. Having made music for four years, Matt still enjoys writing whenever he gets the chance.
