Angela began her career in the insurance industry in 2023 and joined Rothbury in 2026. She specialises in supporting Commercial clients and brings over two years of experience as a Commercial Broker Support. Angela is organised, methodical, and client-focused, with a professional and proactive approach. Her excellent communication skills and collaborative mindset ensure she delivers outstanding support to brokers and clients alike.

Angela is looking forward to meeting clients, learning about their businesses, and understanding their insurance needs. She is passionate about providing exceptional administrative and operational support to the Commercial team.

Outside of work, Angela enjoys walking her dog, mountain biking, live music, and entertaining friends. Recently relocated to Queenstown, she's excited to explore the region's outdoor lifestyle and relaxed atmosphere. A fun fact about Angela—she owns a classic 1994 Holden Commodore SS V8 and loves taking it for drives and attending car shows.
