Cole started in the insurance industry in 2010 and joined Rothbury in 2024. He prides himself in his communication skills and in building long lasting relationships with both clients and colleagues. Cole has a wealth of knowledge across various insurance segments and holds his Level 5 certificate in Financial Advice and a Diploma in Information and Communication Technology.

When he's away from the office, Cole can usually be found spending time with his family and getting involved in all things Motorsport. He loves the Hawkes Bay region for its weather and loves the fact that he is in a central location. Cole is also a qualified mechanic.

What Cole's clients have to say

Jun 2026

I am very happy with the service and have no hesitation in recommending Cole to anyone who asks.

May 2026

He is extremely helpful. We don't usually have a lot of time for meetings. He was punctual, friendly, and to the point, making updating our policy very easy.

Feb 2026

Cole is always able to answer any queries and give me all the information required. When I need to speak to Cole he answers my call, and when he is unavailable, he will respond as soon as he can.

Dec 2025

Cole is an asset to your company.
