David joined Rothbury in 2026 and specialises in Domestic insurance, helping individuals, families, homeowners, and landlords protect what matters most to them. He takes the time to understand each client's circumstances and works alongside them to develop practical insurance solutions that provide the right level of protection.

With a strong background in communication, business development and account management, David brings a relationship-focused approach to his role. He is approachable, reliable, and committed to providing clear, personalised service, ensuring clients feel confident in their insurance decisions.

Based in South Canterbury, David is passionate about building a long-term career in insurance and continually developing his knowledge and expertise. He is currently working towards completing his Level 5 insurance qualification and enjoys helping clients navigate the complexities of insurance.

Outside of work, David enjoys spending time with his family, being outdoors and spending time with his horses and other animals. He values the strong sense of community that South Canterbury offers and enjoys supporting local businesses and community events.
