Elsie started in the insurance industry in 2016 and joined Rothbury Insurance Brokers in 2022. As a commercial broker support, Elsie takes pride in facilitating tailored solutions that meet the needs of local small to medium businesses and rural clients, ensuring they can operate with full confidence. Rothbury Insurance Brokers empowers Elsie in her role to strive for success both professionally and personally, by keeping up to date with latest insurance trends, news and technological advancements that also develop her creative practice.

Beyond her role in insurance, Elsie is a contract illustrator and artist. She has worked with organisations such as the World Bank, IFC, and Huia Publishers, and exhibited in both New Zealand and Australia. Her works focus on Pacific identity, its natural heritage and the climate change impact of these regions.
