Gareth began his insurance career in 1999 and joined Rothbury in 2024. With experience working with clients from across the globe, he brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to his role. Known for staying calm under pressure, Gareth goes above and beyond to deliver tailored solutions for his clients. He thrives in a collaborative team environment, where innovation and cooperation lead to success. Gareth holds a Level 5 Certificate in General Insurance and is an IBANZ Qualified Insurance Broker.

Outside of work, Gareth enjoys cycling with his family, swimming, fishing, and cheering on his daughters at water polo competitions. Originally from the UK, Gareth was born in Branston, the birthplace of the famous pickle! Since moving to New Zealand in 1996, he hasn't yet returned to the UK but continues to embrace life in his new home.
