Garry started his insurance career in 1988 and has recently joined Rothbury. He is a qualified Financial Adviser, level 5. With a wealth of industry knowledge, his focus is on implementing Group and Employee benefit solutions. He is passionate about working with business stakeholders to implement benefits that act to retain and attract sought after staff. Garry is engaged directly by Wealthpoint Limited which holds a transitional financial advice provider licence. For more information visit www.wealthpoint.co.nz

His three 'terror' grandchildren keep him busy outside of work along with his hobbies of endurance mountain biking, golf and fishing. As a member of local clubs for both golf and biking he fully appreciates his local communities capacity for outdoors adventures.
