What Hannah's clients have to say

Auckland Jun 2026

I'm responding for my Uncle, who is now in care. I had to deal with Rothbury a couple of times and found Hannah excellent. A great asset to Rothbury.

Auckland Jun 2026

I have been extremely satisfied with the service that the team at Rothbury have provided. Any issues that I encounter are dealt with very efficiently and with a personal touch. Thank you for your help. It takes a huge stress off the day to day operations when something unexpected comes up.

Service is excellent already - can't think of anything to improve.

Auckland May 2026

I was stressed about having to make a claim. Hannah was very helpful and patient with helping me with the forms, photos, etc, that were required. A wonderful staff member to have on board.

Hannah started in the insurance industry and joined Rothbury in 2024 . She is a patient and empathetic individual with a strong work ethic and great organizational skills. Hannah comes with a range of experience in customer service and problem solving roles, and is committed to delivering exceptional service.

Beyond the office, Hannah enjoys exploring New Zealand both local and afar, whether it's camping, going to the beach, shopping, or going out for a bite to eat. She loves Auckland for its abundance of activities and the vibrant community and enjoys attending local concerts and events. In her personal time, Hannah is a keen cook, always eager to try new recipes.
