Great broker, quick to respond, and I feel like I have the information clearly explained to me.

Rotorua Sept 2026

We always have excellent service. Jodi is so helpful and does her best to get the perfect insurance for us.

Jodi started in the insurance industry in 2015 and joined Rothbury in 2023. She has an extensive wealth of knowledge in Domestic insurance and has a drive to always achieve the best results for each client. She has a bubbly personality and takes pride in building strong client relationships. Jodi holds her Level 5 certificate in general insurance.

When she's out of the office, Jodi can usually be found spending time with her family and supporting her children in various sports. An avid reader, she is partial to curling up with her latest read whenever she can find the time. Jodi is also an amateur painter, gardening enthusiast and loves to bake! She enjoys the Pukekohe region for its small town vibes and community spirit.
