What Kelly's clients have to say

Capital City Aug 2023

Always prompt and efficient

Kelly has been in the insurance industry since 2007 and started with Rothbury in 2015. She has experience across a wide range of insurance products and solutions, having worked as a senior commercial broker support, commercial broker and assistant branch manager during her time with Rothbury. In 2026 she relocated to Dunedin to take up the role of branch manager for Rothbury Otago. Kelly enjoys the challenge of managing complex risks and tailoring appropriate insurance solutions in both the commercial and personal lines space. She works hard for her clients and is dedicated to providing them with quality insurance advice, service and support. She is proud to lead a highly capable and dedicated team of brokers, broker supports and claims advisers in the Rothbury Otago branch!

Kelly is from Taranaki originally, having worked in Wellington for a number of years before finding her way South to Dunedin. Outside of work she enjoys hiking and being outdoors, golfing (badly), travel, going to concerts, and enjoying the local hospitality with her husband and friends.
