Kirsty started in the insurance industry along with joining Rothbury in 2023. She enjoys building rapport with her clients and prides herself on her communication skills. Kirsty always strives to give the best possible advice to suit bespoke insurance needs.

Away from work, Kirsty enjoys gardening and being with friends. She likes the Wellington region for it's great food and the many events and activities – the weather is better than England too! Kirsty worked as part of the All Blacks massage team in the 2011 rugby world cup and also has her Padi rescue diver license!
