Kyle entered the insurance industry in 2014 and has been part of the Rothbury team since 2017. With experience in both Underwriting and Broking, he brings a well-rounded understanding of the insurance landscape. Kyle is known for his responsive service and commitment to delivering tailored insurance solutions that truly align with his clients' needs. He takes pride in building strong relationships and supporting a wide range of clients as their businesses grow and evolve.

Based in Christchurch, Kyle spends most weekends exploring the South Island's outdoors. He's often in the mountains skiing, biking, or hiking, sometimes all in one day. He's the Treasurer of his local ski club and the Chairperson of his local body corporate, roles that reflect his strong sense of community and willingness to take on responsibility both professionally and personally.
