Nick began his insurance journey with Rothbury in 2024. In his role as National Domestic Broker Support, he collaborates closely with his team of national brokers, providing essential assistance with their workloads and ensuring quality service for domestic clients. Nick's attention to detail allows him to identify and address potential issues proactively, while his strong time management skills enable him to prioritise tasks effectively and deliver quality results. His dedication to continuous learning, coupled with his problem-solving abilities and experience from previous roles, makes him a highly capable and reliable team member.

Outside of work, Nick enjoys camping and weekend BBQs (braai) with friends and family. He also finds relaxation and fun in movies and gaming. Nick appreciates Auckland's vibrant, diverse lifestyle and the endless opportunities for adventure and entertainment it offers. He loves exploring new experiences, including attending community events like car shows and cultural festivals. He is a qualified first aider and holds a TEFL (Teaching English as a Foreign Language) certificate, equipping him with the ability to handle unexpected situations calmly and communicate effectively with people from diverse backgrounds. Impressively, Nick's personal best for solving a Rubik's cube is 1 minute 43 seconds!
