Richard began his insurance journey in 2003 and joined Rothbury in 2024 through the acquisition of Austinsure. After returning from his first overseas experience, he found his way into the industry in Nelson.

Specialising in commercial aviation, Richard's expertise spans aviation insurance, liability, contracts, and client service. He holds a Diploma in Business and is a Senior Associate with ANZIIF.

Outside of work, Richard enjoys quality time with friends and family, cooking, traveling, and motorbiking with his riding group. A bit of a handyman, he also loves spending time in his workshop, creating all kinds of projects.

What Richard's clients have to say

Aug 2026

I made contact to renew my insurance early.

May 2026

Richard has a great knowledge of aviation-related insurance matters.

May 2026

We are extremely happy with the service we have received from Richard to date; his communication has been top-tier. He came highly recommended through many helicopter operators we deal with, and for good reason.

Apr 2026

No problems.

Apr 2026

Richard is very knowledgeable on the Insurance subject and works hard to ensure that we are fully covered.

Mar 2026

Fantastic Service.
