Zach began his insurance career with Rothbury in 2025.

Specialising in both Body Corporate and non-Body Corporate clients, he takes pride in his problem-solving abilities, strong work ethic, and commitment to excellent customer service. He enjoys deepening his knowledge of the insurance industry, getting to know Rothbury's clients, and building lasting relationships with stakeholders. Zach also holds a Bachelor of Business in Economics.

Outside of work, Zach is passionate about sports, particularly football which he plays at least once a week. When he's not on the pitch coaching or playing, he enjoys exploring the outdoors or cooking for friends and family. He loves the North Shore for its blend of city life, beautiful beaches, and scenic walks.
