NZ'S LOCAL INSURANCE BROKERS

Claims Examples

Our client, a photographer, dropped a lens while taking it out of their camera bag and the lens shattered. We advised them to complete a claim form and obtain a damage report from a repairer. As the lens could not be repaired, the insurer Ando covered the cost of a replacement lens. The claim was settled for $1,000, less a $500 excess, and was paid into our client's bank account within two days of the claim being accepted.

Our client was flying a drone and, due to a slight breeze, he lost adequate control of the drone which had landed on a road. Before our client had the chance to pick it up it was run over by a truck. The truck running over the drone was established as the reason for the damage to the drone, so the claim was made under the Material Damage policy which had a $500 excess, rather than a $2,500 excess, applicable to damage to a drone in flight. The client submitted a claim form, damage report, quote and photos and the claim was promptly settled to the value of $2,899, less the $500 excess.
